• Artist

Hong Kyoungtack (b.1968) majored in painting at Kyungwon University and is currently working in Seoul. In his first solo exhibition SHRINE held at Insa Art Space in 2000, the 'Pens' series and 'Library' series, which are widely known to us today, were presented. It began to attract attention in the art world. In 2005, in the solo exhibition Funkchestra to commemorate the reopening of the Arko Art Museum. It received great attention as a work that expresses melodies with color and format, and combines images, symbols, and texts of celebrities with them. Since then, he has established himself as a leading Korean artist through solo and group exhibitions at major domestic and foreign museums and major galleries, and is still active today.

• Explanation

"Dream of Mea-hwa" is a realistic representation of a woman in a hanbok and a plum blossom against a background of symmetrical and repetitive geometric patterns. The patterns are reminiscent of a psychedelic light stage, capturing the artist's own network of meanings in consumed images, such as clubs and billboards. The colorful fluorescent 'circles' are repeated in various sizes and colors, giving viewers the illusion of being in a virtual space.
